SUMMARY SHEET Of Ratings And Comments

By Participants

The following comments are taken from evaluations and are passed along so that you may be aware of areas of "concerns and celebrations."

November 2008

Comment 1: This session allowed me to relieve some of my frustrations with my husband. They actually got him to open up and talk. I just hope he keeps it up when he gets home. They helped him to see what I have been trying to get him to see and couldn't. Thanks so much.

Comment 2: I really enjoyed the session and am going to use the techniques to improve my marriage.

Comment 3: The entire experience as a blessing. Even more so the enrichment portion because it was interactive. The points that were brought out have heightened my awareness and have given me tools to build and maintain my marriage.

Comment 4: This was a wonderful and informative session. My husband and I really appreciated the outcome and changes we saw in not only our relationship and the other couples who attended again. I will most definitely attend this series again. Something that I didn't want to do turned out to be the Biggest Blessing.

Comment 5: I loved their openness and candidness as they shared their personal experiences during the personal dialogue. Their 40+ years of marriage and willingness to share was crucial to the success of this marriage seminar. We thoroughly enjoyed. PS: Keep pulling back "the curtain" as you share your personal marital experiences. It's really refreshing to see a couple who is so real and honest with strangers who need to know that there's hope and an enriched relationship between couples.
